ENFORCEMENT

Individuals found violating any policy can be removed from the coliseum. Non-students, while not affected by the Student Conduct Code, are subject to arrest and prosecution under applicable laws and state statutes. Violation of University of Alabama policies can result in eviction from the coliseum and forfeiture of tickets to future events.

Students involved in such activities or other disruptive behavior will also be subject to disciplinary action through the Dean of Students Office and the University of Alabama's Code of Student Conduct. Students enjoy the rights and privileges that they gain as a member of the University community and are subject to the responsibilities which accompany that membership.

MEDICAL STAFF LOCATIONS

For any emergency at Coleman Coliseum, including medical emergencies, notify the nearest event staff or police officer. The First Aid Station is located in the Southwest corner of the concourse near section Z and can be reached at 205-348-5975.

DON'T BRING IT.

The following items are not allowed in Coleman Coliseum under any circumstance:

- oversized bags, backpacks & purses (8.5" x 11")
- video recorders / camcorders
- outside food & drink
- weapons
- coolers
- umbrellas
- artificial noisemakers
- strollers
- chairbacks larger than 16"
- cameras with telephoto lenses larger than 6"
- computers
- flags / banners on poles

Law enforcement officials have the right to inspect any item at any time for the purpose of spectator safety. Prohibited items must be returned to cars or disposed of before entering the coliseum. There are no provisions to check items at any gate.

MEDIA

DON'T DO IT.

Rowdy, threatening or inconsiderate behavior will not be tolerated, including the following:

- profane or abusive language
- standing in the aisles, portals or concourses
- smoking in prohibited areas
- fighting
- drunkenness
- throwing of any objects, including paper and plastic cups

Should you observe any of this disruptive behavior, please notify your nearest law enforcement officer. Such behavior will not be tolerated and could result in ejection from the coliseum, arrest and/or the revocation of season tickets.

NCAA policy prevents fans from entering the court area unless they are properly credentialed or accompanied by an authorized staff member. Violators are subject to arrest.

MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE
The Alabama Athletic Media Relations Office is located on the ground level of Coleman Coliseum.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS
Credentials are required for access on the floor at all University of Alabama home women's basketball games. Direct media credential requests in writing on company letterhead to Jessica Pare' in the Alabama Media Relations Office. Place cards on press row identify your seat. Credentials may be picked up at the Media Will Call table outside of the media relations office at Coleman Coliseum.

In the event of a doubleheader with the men's team, a pass to the women's game will allow you to remain in the coliseum for the men's game, but the seat on press row is good only for the women's game. Allowances will be made for media covering both events. Parking passes are only necessary for doubleheader games and should be requested far in advance. Photographer credentials should also be made in writing on company letterhead. The photo area includes both ends of the court.

INTERVIEWS
Alabama coach Wendell Hudson, his staff and players are available for interviews in person or, with prior arrangement, by telephone. Alabama practices will be in Coleman Coliseum. Practices are open to members of the media, with players and coaches available following the completion of practice, depending upon class schedules and/or travel or other plans. Media wishing to attend practice should contact the Alabama Media Relations Office at least one hour before practice is scheduled to begin. Contact Jessica Pare' to obtain that day's practice plans.

On game day, only post-game interviews are allowed. Please arrange all player interviews through Pare' at (205) 348-3673.

RADIO BROADCASTS
Visiting teams wishing to broadcast games from Coleman Coliseum are provided access to one phone line. The calls are charged to the visiting radio network. Should an additional line be required, broadcasters must arrange their own hookup through the University of Alabama Telecommunications Office at (205) 348-6300. Visiting radio broadcasters must call in advance or have their media relations office notify Alabama that they will be broadcasting the game and will require credentials. Alabama provides a monitor that is hooked up to the computer stats program (Automated Scorebook) so that the electronic media can have up-to-the-second stats.

GAME SERVICES
Complete team and individual statistics (box), quotes and a running play-by-play are provided to the media who cover the Crimson Tide at home. Copies of stats, game notes, media guides and roster sheets are available in the Media Workroom. Complete books, which include the box and play-by-play, will be brought to the Media Workroom/post-game interview room promptly following the game's conclusion. Brief quotes from Wendell Hudson and the visiting coach, as well as some of Alabama's players are included in the post-game package. At home games, with five minutes remaining, a member of the Media Relations staff will collect post-game interview requests. Approximately ten minutes after the game ends, the two head coaches and the players requested will come to the interview room adjacent to press row.

Ample electrical outlets and phone jacks are available in the workroom for media to write and file their story. Anyone wishing to install a private phone line must do so several weeks in advance by calling University Telecommunications Office (205) 348-6300.

INTERNET
Information about University of Alabama athletics can be found on the internet at RollTide.com. Information on the site includes rosters, schedules, results, stats, box scores and biographical information. Some photos are also available on the site.

From the website, Tide fans can also find a link to listen to Alabama games live via the internet and follow home game action via live stats.

Wireless internet is available in Coleman Coliseum, including the media room and in the media relations offices nearby.

VIDEO FOOTAGE/SATELLITE FEEDS
The University of Alabama, through Crimson Tide Sports Marketing and the Crimson Tide Sports Network, offers a weekly 15-minute satellite feed consisting of interviews with coaches and athletes, taped highlights and a narrated taped package. The package is offered September through May. During the season, the women's basketball team is included in this package. For its key home games, Alabama may offer a feed following the game that night.

Please call Tom Roberts at CTSM (205) 348-9610, for more details including the time and coordinates if you are interested in taking the feed. To obtain videotaped footage of the team, please contact CTSM at the above number.

"The University of Alabama has never been stronger. Our academic programs continue to prosper. Almost one quarter of this year's entering freshman class enrolled in the Honors College. This group scored in the top two percent nationally on the ACT, and they have extraordinarily strong high school records. The research activity of our faculty has grown significantly and our service to our community and state has never been more substantial. The future of our University is very bright."

Dr. Robert E. Witt
PRESIDENT, UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

SWEET HOME ALABAMA

As president of The University of Alabama, Dr. Robert E. Witt has committed the University to an ambitious plan for growth and achievement. His goals include increasing enrollment to 28,000 students and stimulating significant growth in research in support of economic expansion for the state and nation. Under his leadership, enrollment has reached record levels, academic quality has increased significantly, and scholarship opportunities for deserving students have improved dramatically. The University ranks 11th nationally among public universities in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars and leads the nation in the number of students named to USA Today's All-USA College Academic Teams. Since its inception in 2003, the University's Honors College has grown exponentially and currently enrolls more than 1,000 freshmen each year. Dr. Witt has also led a major building program on campus with more than 20 new facilities opening during his presidency. The University's new Science and Engineering Building and a new 960-bed residence hall opened for fall 2009 and the new College of Nursing Building is under construction.

Private giving to the University reached an all-time high as supporters embraced the "Our Students. Our Future." capital campaign, which concluded in June 2009, significantly exceeding its goal of $500 million.

Prior to joining The University of Alabama in 2003, Dr. Witt spent 35 years as a faculty member and administrator in the University of Texas System. He received his B.A. in economics from Bates College, his M.B.A. from Tuck School at Dartmouth College, and his Ph.D. from Penn State University. He serves on the board of directors of the West Alabama Chamber of Commerce and the Black Warrior Council Boy Scouts of America, and is a member of the Tuscaloosa County Industrial Development Authority. Dr. Witt and his wife Sandee have three grandchildren.

SNAPSHOTS:
Five University of Alabama students were named to the 2009 USA Today All-USA College Academic Team, the most of any school. This year's team brings UA's total for the last seven years to 36, a figure that tops all other colleges and universities.

TOP RANKED

ONE OF AMERICA'S TOP PUBLIC UNIVERSITIES

The University of Alabama perennially ranks among the top 50 public universities in the nation in U.S. News and World Report's annual college rankings, and ranked a record 37th among public universities in the 2009 rankings. UA's latest college rankings include:

- The School of Law is ranked 11th among public law schools and 30th among all law schools in the nation, spring 2009.
- The School of Library and Information Studies is ranked 22nd nationally, spring 2009.
- The School of Social Work's graduate program is ranked 28th among social work programs at public universities and 42nd when both public and private institutions are included, spring 2008.
- The undergraduate business program is ranked 29th among public undergraduate business schools and 52nd when private universities are included, fall 2008.

U.S.News America's Best Colleges 2009

Enrollment at The University of Alabama reached a record high of 27,052 for fall 2008. The entering freshman class, at 5,116 students, was the largest in UA history and includes more than 1,000 freshmen who had a 4.0 or higher high school grade point average. One in five freshmen – 1,065 students -- enrolled in UA's Honors College for fall 2008.

The University of Alabama ranks 11th in the nation among public universities in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars.

The University of Alabama has produced a total of 15 Rhodes Scholars. And, in the past two decades, we've produced 29 Goldwater Scholars, 13 Hollings Scholars, seven Truman Scholars, two Javits Fellows, one Udall Scholar and one Portz Scholar.

UA is one of the top five public flagship universities in the nation in the enrollment of African-American students. For the 2008-2009 academic year, African-Americans represented 11.3 percent of the student body.

Participation in original research and creative activities is becoming a hallmark of the undergraduate experience at The University of Alabama. More than 250 undergraduates showcased their research and creative activity projects at UA's spring 2009 "Undergraduate Research and Creative Activity Conference."

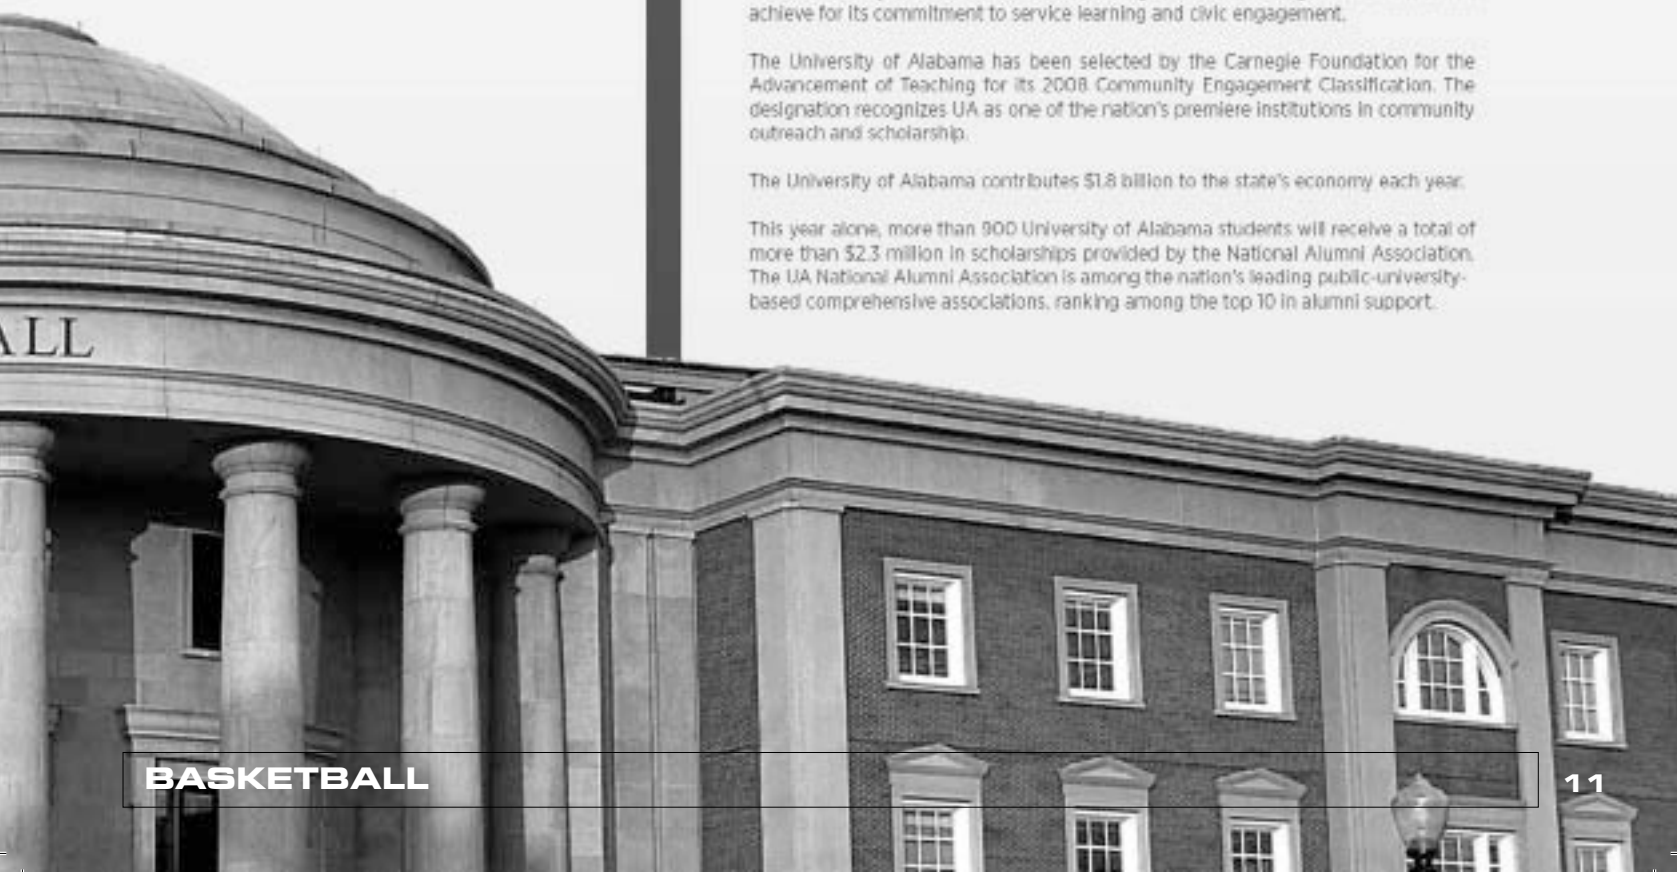
The Center for College Affordability and Productivity ranks The University of Alabama seventh in the nation among public universities in a study published in Forbes magazine, May 2008. Criteria included student evaluations, graduation rates, the percentage of students winning top national awards, and professional achievement of graduates.

The University of Alabama has been named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll by the Corporation for National and Community Service. The Community Service Honor Roll is the highest federal recognition a school can achieve for its commitment to service learning and civic engagement.

The University of Alabama has been selected by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching for its 2008 Community Engagement Classification. The designation recognizes UA as one of the nation's premiere institutions in community outreach and scholarship.

The University of Alabama contributes $1.8 billion to the state's economy each year.

This year alone, more than 900 University of Alabama students will receive a total of more than $2.3 million in scholarships provided by the National Alumni Association. The UA National Alumni Association is among the nation's leading public-university-based comprehensive associations, ranking among the top 10 in alumni support.



GORGAS LIBRARY

Life on The University of Alabama campus is defined by opportunities. If you want to get involved, join one of more than 250 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

If you enjoy the arts, you can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. You can enrich your knowledge of the state and university's history by visiting one of UA's fine museums, which house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

THE PRESIDENT'S MANSION

In 1838 the University of Alabama Board of Trustees appropriated funds for a more suitable residence for the University's new president, Basil Manly. The mansion was built between 1839 and 1841. According to tradition, Louisa Frances Garland, wife of president Landon C. Garland, valiantly saved the stately residence from destruction when Union troops destroyed the campus in April 4, 1865. The mansion, which has undergone a number of restorations, assumed its predominately white appearance in 1908.

From the architecture on campus to the landscaping, The University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama.

ON CAMPUS

THE SIGHTS OF ONE OF AMERICA'S MOST BEAUTIFUL AND HISTORICAL UNIVERSITIES

THE FERGUSON CENTER

The Ferguson Center, completed in 1973, was named for Hill Ferguson, a member of the Board of Trustees. Plans at the time called for the building to be constructed over Woods Hall, but it was built just to the north thanks to a student campaign to save the art building.

The Ferguson Center Game Room located on the First Floor is the perfect place to unwind, test your skill at a video game, play a friendly game of pool or ping-pong, or enter a campus tournament. With seven pool tables, video games, a ping-pong table, computer gaming and televisions, the Game Room offers a fun escape to the daily pressures of college life.

The Ferguson Center is the community center of The University of Alabama. The "Ferg" houses an impressive array of services and facilities including:

*Alabama Credit Union
*Art gallery
*ATM machines
*Ballroom
*Career Center
*Computer Lab
*Crimson Copies
*Dean of Students
*Food Court
*Game room/arcade
*Hair Techniques
*Information desk
*Meeting, reception, banquet rooms
*Student Judicial Affairs
*Student organization offices
*Theater
*University Supply Store
*U.S. Post Office
*Volunteer Services

STUDENT SECTION

The University of Alabama offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Whatever your interests, you'll find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

There are more than 50 Greek organizations and more than 30 campus ministries at The University of Alabama.

THE STUDENT RECREATION CENTER

The expanded facility includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court—together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet.

The facility's outdoor aquatic area, which opened in the summer of 2003, features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and lots of deck space.

MAL MOORE

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

The University of Alabama's Director of Athletics since 1999, Mal Moore has made an indelible mark on one of the nation's most storied athletic programs, leading a department that has enjoyed tremendous success athletically and academically and has undergone an unprecedented period of growth during his tenure.

Through his guidance, Alabama's athletic department remains focused on his vision of having all Crimson Tide athletic teams and student-athletes competitive at the highest level nationally while continuing to elevate athletic facilities at the Capstone to premier status nationally for all sports.

During his tenure as Director of Athletics, Moore has overseen more than $200 million of capital improvements to University of Alabama athletic facilities. Those projects have encompassed the entire scope of all Crimson Tide athletic programs and have benefitted every Alabama student-athlete, coach, and administrator.

Throughout his multi-faceted career, Moore has worked with a diversified field of constituents, from fellow coaches and former players, to fans and the business community. All of those experiences and relationships - in addition to his ability to unify those many constituents - have made him the ideal person to lead Alabama athletics in the 21st century.

His leadership has been crucial in helping guide Alabama through a period that has been, at times, extremely challenging. His guidance and effort helped Alabama athletics weather the storm, while continuing to move in a positive direction toward a future that holds great promise.

Moore's dedication to and love of the University of Alabama was recognized on March 28, 2007, when as a permanent tribute to his life-long contribution to The University of Alabama, the Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama officially dedicated the facility formerly known as The Football Building as the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility.

Under Moore's direction, Alabama's athletic teams have produced several Southeastern Conference championships, winning titles in gymnastics, men's basketball, men's golf, men's cross country, baseball and softball; taking SEC tournament titles in both baseball and softball; and an NCAA gymnastics championship. Alabama athletes have earned some of the highest honors the SEC and NCAA have to offer, including SEC Athlete of the Year, SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, NCAA Top VIII, NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships and NCAA Sportsperson of the Year. These honors are over and above the individual conference and national titles that Alabama athletes continue to bring home to the Capstone on a regular basis.

In addition to making his mark on Alabama, Moore has also had a national impact as a key member of several prestigious NCAA and college football committees. Moore has served on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee, the SEC Athletic Directors Bowl Advisory Committee and the Big Six Conferences Minority Coaches Forum.

Moore's distinguished record of service to UA began more than 50 years ago when he joined the Crimson Tide football squad as a scholarship player for Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1958-62. Moore has the distinction of being a part of seven national championship teams (1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978, 1979, and 1992), 14 SEC championships, and 27 bowl trips during his career as a player and coach, the first as a member of the Crimson Tide's 1961 national championship team. He is the only individual connected with the Tide program to be a part of seven national championships.

During a coaching career that spanned 31 years, Moore spent 22 of those at Alabama with stops at Montana State, Notre Dame and the NFL's St. Louis and Phoenix Cardinals. At Alabama, Moore started as Coach Bryant's graduate assistant in 1964, then as defensive backfield coach for five years beginning in 1965 before becoming quarterbacks coach from 1971-82 and serving as the Tide's first offensive coordinator starting in 1975. He would go on to coordinate all of the offensive plays for Alabama's last four national championship teams.

A 1963 graduate of The University of Alabama, Moore holds both an undergraduate degree in Sociology and a 1964 Master's Degree in Secondary Education from the Capstone. Moore was born December 19, 1939, in Dozier, Ala. He has been married to the former Charlotte Davis of Tuscaloosa since July 20, 1968. They have one daughter, Mrs. Steve (Heather) Cook of Scottsdale, Ariz., a granddaughter, Anna Lee, and a grandson, Charles Cannon.

TRADITION CHAMPIONS LEADERS

Drawing from our rich heritage and tradition of champions, the University of Alabama Department of Athletics is committed to the highest standard of excellence in all its endeavors to develop future leaders.

In embracing our core values we will:

Build and maintain an athletic program that annually ranks among the national elite in all sports; emphasize recruitment of the top student-athlete; construct and develop first-class facilities in which our student-athletes and coaches can train and compete at the highest level; promote community involvement of our student-athletes, coaches and staff as necessary for our program's success; and perpetuate our rich heritage and tradition through the spirited branding of our Crimson Tide name.

VISION	We will be visionary in our efforts to develop and maintain a superior Intercollegiate Athletics Program.
INTEGRITY	We will demonstrate unquestionable integrity in all areas of conduct in total compliance with all UA, SEC and NCAA regulations; including day-to-day interaction with all fellow staff members and student-athletes.
COMMITMENT	We will commit to the total support of the educational, athletic and personal development of all our student-athletes while training future leaders.
RESPECT	We will demonstrate diversity and inclusiveness within our department providing opportunities regardless of gender, race or physical challenges.
EXCELLENCE	We will pursue generational loyalty to Crimson Tide Athletics through the comprehensive excellence in our athletic programs.
ACCOUNTABILITY	We will accept the responsibility for our actions as representatives of the athletic department while being accountable to our student-athletes, staff, fans and supporters.

ROLL MODELS

Tide Players seek to maximize their impact.

The Crimson Tide basketball team regularly gives back to the city of Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas through various community service programs. Alabama student-athletes take the time out of their hectic schedules to read to children, entertain the elderly or just brighten the day of those they are meeting with. A truly unique program the women's basketball team has become involved with is the Fifth Grade Fastbreak. Entering its third year in existence, the program provides athletically-related educational initiatives to local fifth graders. Highlighting the experience is the annual Fifth Grade Fastbreak Game of the Year where thousands of participating students are bused in for a game played during school hours.

"It's very important for us, as student-athletes, to reach out to the Tuscaloosa community. I remember seeing the look in the children's eyes the first time I went to an elementary school. They were so excited to be interacting with Alabama athletes! It makes them feel even more connected when they come to our games because they feel like they really know the team. To have the opportunity to be positive role models to these children is great, and we are more than happy to help whenever we can."

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Crimson Tide's volunteer activities include:

- Fifth Grade Fastbreak
- Easter Seals Walk
- Project Angel Tree
- Read Across America
- Athletic Dept. Halloween Extravaganza
- Volunteering with the elderly
- Volunteering with special needs students

POINT GUARDS

Coach Hudson is excited about the potential he sees in his pair of point guards this season. This was a strong position a year ago for the Tide, but senior Dedrea Magee was the only true point guard on the team. Now with the addition of junior college transfer LaToya King, Coach Hudson sees a position that has much more depth. Magee saw action in all 30 games as a junior, including playing 40 minutes in four of those games. Her career-best offensive performance came against Tennessee, where she connected on 10-of-18 shots for 21 points. She also handed out a career-high 10 assists against Vanderbilt. Magee earned the Crimson Tide Holiday Classic MVP award for her performance in the two-day tournament, totaling 27 points and 12 rebounds in two games. King, a junior who transfers into the program after two years with Seminole Community College, was a 2009 National Junior College Athletic Association Third Team All-American selection. She was also named Seminole Community College's women's basketball MVP last season. King led her team in scoring (17.2 ppg), assists (6.2 pg), and steals (3.2 pg).

Ericka Russell emerged as one of Alabama's top scoring threats, especially from beyond the arc where she led the Tide with 57 three-pointers.

SHOOTING GUARDS

Coach Hudson believes this position will be the strength of the team this season. Alabama has numerous players who can step into the role, and he expects them to provide the team with versatility and the ability to consistently knock down shots. The Tide features two juniors at this position, Alyson Butler and Varisia Raffington. Butler saw action in all 30 games last season, and knocked down five three-points on her way to setting a career-high in points scored with 15. She also scored 10 points in the SEC-opener against Vanderbilt. Raffington started all 30 games last season as a sophomore, leading Alabama in scoring on six occasions and amassing double-figure points in 13 games. She poured in a career-best 27 points against Vanderbilt, going 7-of-8 from behind the arc. Sophomore Ericka Russell was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team a year ago. The Tuscaloosa native started 25 games and saw action in all 30 on her way to scoring in double-digits 14 times. She registered a career-high 25 points in her first SEC game against Vanderbilt, and was the leading scorer for Alabama seven times. She averaged 10.1 points per game, which was good enough for second best on the team. The remaining three options at this position are all newcomers. Redshirt freshman Candace Sykes sat out last season, but should be ready to contribute to the tremendous depth the Tide has around the perimeter. The St. Anne, Ill., native was a First Team All-State selection her junior and senior seasons. She averaged 21.5 points and 11.2 rebounds as a senior and ranked 58th in the country by ESPN HoopGurlz. True freshmen Jennifer Edwards and Celiscia Farmer can also step onto the court in the shooting guard role for Alabama. Edwards is a Houston, Texas, native who helped lead Memorial High to the Texas State playoffs all four years of her high school career, while Farmer played at in-state school Robert E. Lee and notched an impressive 43 points in one game.

Tierney Jenkins led the team in scoring and rebounding last season with an average of 11.1 points and 7.4 boards per outing.

FORWARDS

The Tide will need solid play from this position on the defensive end, and should have a combination of players who can do just that. Alabama features one senior, two juniors, and a freshman at forward. Leading the way will be junior Tierney Jenkins, who averaged a team-best 11.1 points per game a season ago. Jenkins played in every game last season for the Tide, scoring in double figures 18 times. She also pulled down 222 rebounds, giving her an average of 7.4 per game as she amassed double-digit rebounds on eight occasions. Fellow junior Katie Hancock is also coming off a successful sophomore season, starting 21 games and seeing action in all 30. She started off the season in impressive fashion, notching her first career double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds in the opener against Centenary. She also led Alabama in scoring against Hampton when she collected a career-best 15 points. Senior Tamara Williams, who played in 23 games last season, should help give the Tide great depth at the forward position. Williams only averaged 1.4 points and 1.9 rebounds as a junior, but she will be able to provide Coach Hudson with some quality minutes of tough defensive play. Alabama also welcomes in freshman Jocelyn Shaw, who played at in-state powerhouse LeFlore. Shaw was named MVP last season as a senior in the 5A classification, helping spark her team on a run to the state title. She also competed in the Alabama vs. Mississippi All-Star and Alabama North vs. South All-Star games.

CENTERS

Alabama has a trio of options at the center position, and Coach Hudson hopes these three players will combine to give the team a consistent 40 minutes of strong defensive play on the floor and on the boards. If this happens, he believes the offense will take care of itself. Senior Courtney Strauthers is the most experienced of the group starting all 30 games a season ago. She had a break-out year as a junior, collecting the first double-double of her career by scoring 12 points and grabbing 10 rebounds against Vanderbilt. Strauthers also set a new career-high in points scored when she notched 13 points against UCF. She also led the Tide last season in blocked shots with 21. Alabama also has two sophomores, Carmen McCoy and Kayla Robinson, who will help make the center position a solid one. McCoy saw action in 24 games last season, scoring a career-high nine points against Auburn. The 6-4 sophomore was also a formidable presence in the paint defensively, swatting away four shots against Alabama State. Robinson played in 15 games last season, but was able to find some success in those games. She set a career-high in points scored (10) and tied a career-high in rebounds (seven) against Mississippi in 31 minutes of action, which was also a career-high for minutes played.

BAYLOR

MCLENNAN CC

When asked to coach at his alma mater on March 15, 2008, Wendell Hudson was presented a unique opportunity to help bring the Crimson Tide Women's Basketball program back to national prominence. With one season under his belt, the Alabama legend is primed to continue making strides in the right direction.

"I have a tremendous passion for Alabama athletics," said Hudson. "Alabama is a program that has produced First-Team All-Americans and has taken its game to the highest level, the Final Four. At Alabama, we compete for championships, and we look forward to bringing this program back as an elite national competitor."

In his first season, Hudson guided the Tide to its best start in nearly a decade as it went 12-3 prior to entering Southeastern Conference play. The 2008-09 squad collected five more wins than in the previous season and won six-consecutive contests for the most in a row since 2002. Freshman sensation Ericka Russell was one of eight league rookies to be named to the SEC All-Freshman Team and also garnered Freshmen Academic Honor Roll recognition. In addition, Alyson Butler and Tamara Williams were both named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll for their successes in the classroom.

Prior to taking the head coaching reins, Hudson served from 2003 to 2008 as Associate Athletic Director for Alumni Relations at the Capstone, a place he built strong roots in 30 years prior. Hudson graduated from the University of Alabama as the first African American scholarship athlete and earned SEC Most Valuable Player honors in 1973. He led both Alabama and the conference in scoring and was second in rebounding in 1972 and was first in boards and second in points the next season. Hudson finished his playing career in the crimson and white with 1,326 points and 826 rebounds ranking him 18th and 10th in the Alabama annals, respectively.

A veteran basketball coach with 27 years of experience with both men and women's teams, including seven seasons in the SEC, Hudson has a proven track record of success, especially in the state of Alabama. Hudson began his coaching with the Tide under C.M. Newton as an assistant from 1974-79. On the sideline as an assistant at the Capstone, Hudson helped the crimson and white compile a 129-41 record that included three-straight SEC titles and a Sweet 16 appearance in 1976. Alabama was ranked in the nation's top-10 for 43 of 54 weeks during its three-year SEC title run.

Hudson then moved on to be an assistant at North Alabama where his teams recorded an overall record of 56-31, including two trips to the NCAA Division II Tournament where the Lions went to the Final Four in 1980.

Other coaching stops included Rice (1982-83), Mississippi (1983-85) and Baylor (1985-86) before he turned his career to athletic administration at McLennan Community College in Waco, Texas in 1986.

While at McLennan, Hudson served four years as Assistant Athletic Director before being named Athletic Director, a position he held for six years. He also served as the women's basketball coach from 1986-1999. In 2001, Hudson took over the head coaching duties for the men's squad. In the 12 seasons at McLennan, Hudson compiled a 239-127 overall record, including a 219-117 mark as the head women's coach for 11 seasons.

Hudson, a member of the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, graduated from Alabama in 1973 with a Bachelor of Science degree. The Birmingham native was a second-round draft pick by the National Basketball Association's Chicago Bulls. Hudson also spent time playing for the American Basketball Association's Memphis Tams.

LOUISIANA TECH

Joni Crenshaw, a four-year letter-winner for the Crimson Tide, enters her second season as associate head coach at her alma mater.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Crenshaw spent three seasons at Louisiana Tech, one of which as the associate head coach under Chris Long. She became only the fourth person to hold that title in the history of the Lady Techster program joining some of the best in the business in the likes of Leon Barmore, Kim Mulkey and Kurt Budke.

Crenshaw's top responsibility in Ruston was serving as Louisiana Tech's recruiting coordinator where she handled both high school and junior colleges efforts. An emphasis was placed in her home state of Mississippi as well as Alabama where she grew strong roots as a student-athlete.

Crenshaw's recruiting work paid dividends for the Lady Techsters as she was instrumental in signing high school standouts Shanavia Dowdell (2006 Miss Basketball in Alabama) and Tiawana Pringle (2006 Miss Basketball in Mississippi).

In addition to recruiting, Crenshaw handled post player development, scouting reports, Tech summer basketball camps and speaking engagements on behalf of the Lady Techster program.

On the sidelines, she helped lead Louisiana Tech to a pair of Western Athletic Conference regular season titles in her first two years and an appearance in the 2006 NCAA Tournament.

Prior to joining the Lady Techsters, Crenshaw spent three years at Troy University where she served as the program's recruiting coordinator. In addition to that duty, she also handled development of the post players, served as academic coordinator and coordinated Troy State's summer camps.

During those three years, Crenshaw recruited, and signed, two Atlantic Sun Freshman of the Year honorees in Laura Lee Holman (2004) and Amy Lewis (2005). Holman was joined by another one of Crenshaw's signees, Audrey Muse, on the 2004 Atlantic Sun All-Freshmen team.

The Meridian, Miss., native lettered four years at Alabama where, during her playing days as a center, scored 716 points, grabbed 555 rebounds and registered 103 blocked shots ranking her fourth in the program's history. She entered the starting lineup her final two years in the crimson and white while serving as team captain as a senior.

Crenshaw was named to the Southeastern Conference's Good Works Team for two years and also received the Outstanding Community Service Award in 2001. She was named to the SEC's Academic Honor Roll all four years and received a post-graduate scholarship for community service from the SEC in 2001. That same year, Crenshaw was recognized as one of the 10 most influential African Americans on campus by the Mentor Fellowship Society.

Crenshaw earned her bachelor's degree in education from Alabama in 2002 and is currently pursuing a master's degree in sport and fitness management.

Prior to her collegiate career, Crenshaw prepped at Meridian High School where she was named the 1997 Gatorade Player of the Year and a USA Today All-American while leading the school to a mark of 67-7 over her final two years. She also won three state titles in track and field during her high school days and was selected as the school's Homecoming Queen in 1996.

TY EVANS

SAINT LOUIS

1998

ULRIKEN EAGLES

SAINT LOUIS

2004

Ty Evans, a former All-American for Wisconsin-Whitewater, returns for his third season as an assistant on the Alabama coaching staff. He is in his seventh season overall as a Division I assistant and possesses coaching experience at both the professional and collegiate ranks.

Evans has made an immediate impact at every stop of his coaching career that spans over nearly a decade. Under his guidance, Evans has directly coached an all-conference player in all but one season. Developing the post players at every stop, Evans has been recognized as one of the top assistants in the nation.

In his first season in Tuscaloosa, Evans guided Tierney Jenkins to Southeastern Conference All-Freshman recognition. Jenkins was second among league rookies with 11.8 points per game. The newcomer led all SEC freshmen on the glass with 6.7 rebounds per contest. Her 11.8 points per contest was also a team high and 6.7 boards good for second-best on the squad.

Jenkins also added a presence on the defensive end by leading the team with 53 steals. Her six steals against Washington State in the Junkanoo Jam was tied for the second most steals in the conference in a single game. She was named to the Junkanoo Jam All-Tournament Team.

The 6-0 freshman had the largest single-game point outburst on the team with a career-best 29 points against Hampton on Dec. 20. For her effort, she was named the SEC Freshman of the Week after leading the Tide to three-straight wins.

Prior to joining the Tide, Evans took his coaching prowess to Georgetown University where he assumed every role including a stint as the recruiting coordinator. During his two-year stay in Washington D.C., 5-10 forward Kieraah Marlow garnered two-straight All-BIG EAST selections.

As a sophomore, Marlow led the Hoyas in scoring with 16.8 points and recorded double-figures on seven different occasions. She was the team's high scorer 14 times and Georgetown's top rebounder 11 times. Marlow ranked fifth in the BIG EAST with her 16.8 points per game and 80 percent free throw shooting. She also ranked ninth in the league with 8.2 rebounds per game while making 44 percent of her shots from the floor.

The next season Marlow, again, garnered conference honors and led the Hoyas with 16.0 points per game, ranking her 10th in the league. She became just the eighth Georgetown player to surpass the 1,100-point and 600 rebound marks.

Evans began his collegiate coaching career at Saint Louis University where in 2001, he was instrumental in the development of Angie Lewis. The 6-1, All-Conference USA, forward led the Billikens in scoring with 13.8 points per game and rebounding with 8.1 rebounds per outing. Her 13.8 points ranked ninth and her 8.1 rebounds ranked seventh in the conference.

After a year away from the university coaching overseas, Evans returned to the bench at SLU where he, again, coached Lewis to a second All-Conference selection. Lewis, who was not honored by the conference the year he was away from the program, reaped the rewards of Evans back on campus. She finished the 2003-04 season with 485 points, the second-highest single-season total in school history, and averaged 18.0 points and 7.0 rebounds. Lewis broke the record for field goals made in a season with 194. She scored 32 points against East Carolina, the second-highest single-game total in school history and was the first player at SLU to score at least 30 points in a game three times in one season. Lewis tallied 1,300 points in her career, the sixth-best total in school history, and her 659 rebounds ranks sixth on the rebounding chart.

While at SLU, Evans was also directly responsible for the recruitment of Mia Johnson. Johnson, a native of Minneapolis, Minn., was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman team after leading her team, and ranking fifth in the league, with a scoring average of 17.1 points per game. Johnson, who also had team highs of 87 assists and 50 steals while averaging 4.0 rebounds, hit 64 3-point baskets and set a school single-season record with 110 made free throws. Her 444 points were fifth-most in a single season in SLU history. Johnson transferred to Michigan State after Evans left the SLU bench.

At the professional ranks, during the 2002-03 season, Evans served as head coach with the Ulkiken Eagles, based in Bergen, Norway, and competed in the Norway Professional Men's League. He guided the Eagles to the quarter-finals of the country's premiere, semi-professional basketball league knows as the BLNO.

Evans is also active in the coaching community as he's been invited the past three years to participate in the prestigious Consortium, presented by Nike. The Consortium is a career development opportunity for the truly elite assistant women's basketball coaches.

A 1995 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, Evans earned a degree in secondary education while serving as a co-captain on the basketball team for two seasons. He was a first team All-American for the Warhawks following the 1994-95 campaign. Evans garnered two-straight all-conference honors and led the Warhawks to the NCAA tournament twice. He will be inducted into the Wisconsin-Whitewater Hall of Fame this fall.

THE EVANS FAMILY

Evans spent the 1991 season at the University of Richmond before transferring to UW-W. That year, the Spiders won the Colonial Athletic Association Championship and went to the NCAA Tournament where, as a No. 15 seed, defeated No. 2 seed Syracuse in the First Round.

Evans had a professional career overseas, playing in Norway and Taiwan. In 1998, he won his team's Most Valuable Player award in Norway and was named to the All-Star Foreign Tour Team in 1996.

Evans is married to the former Tina Perkins and has three children: Alexis, Matthew and Shylyn.

FRANKLIN

ASSISTANT COACH

1990 2000

MISSISSIPPI STATE

Former Alabama standout Stacey Franklin enters her second season as an assistant coach for the Crimson Tide and 14th overall as a Division I assistant all of which were spent in the Southeastern Conference.

Prior to her return to the Capstone, Franklin spent 12 year on the Mississippi State coaching staff. Since arriving in 1996, Franklin helped lead Mississippi State to nine postseason appearances in 12 seasons, including four NCAA Tournament berths. During that time the Lady Bulldogs earned their first top-25 national ranking in 2000 and reappeared in the poll again in 2002. Mississippi State cracked the top 10 for the first time in school history in 2003. The six-straight postseason appearances were a school record and its trip to the postseason in 1997 was its first since 1988.

Franklin's primary areas of responsibility for the Lady Bulldogs included player development, recruiting, practice, game preparation and scouting. As a part of player development, Franklin coordinated student-athlete seminars on life skills in many areas, including financial planning, nutrition, professional etiquette, team building and media training.

While on the bench for the maroon and white, the Lady Bulldogs recorded 25 wins over ranked opponents, 18 of which were when Mississippi State was not in the rankings. Franklin helped lead the Lady Bulldogs to the program's only SEC Championship game in 2000 against Tennessee.

While on the recruiting trail, Franklin helped bring some of the top talent in the nation to Starkville. In addition, she helped coach two Kodak All-Americans, eight First-Team All-SEC players, five SEC All-Freshmen Team honorees and 54 Academic All-SEC selections. Franklin also helped develop the 2003 WNBA first overall selection in LaToya Thomas and the second overall pick in 2005 in Tan White. A total of eight players have gone on to play professional basketball under Franklin.

Franklin helped guide the Bulldogs to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history in the 1998-99 season.

LaToya Thomas led the SEC in scoring all four years she was at Mississippi State, including a stellar 25.6 ppg in her senior season, which is the highest average ever for a Bulldog player. She also was the leading rebounder for Mississippi State her sophomore through senior seasons. She was 0.1 rebound per game short of averaging a double-double her junior season. Thomas was named SEC Female Athlete of the Year and SEC Player of the Year as a senior.

Tan White was also a dynamic player for the Bulldogs. She was the leading scorer and rebounder for Mississippi State her junior and senior seasons. She was also the SEC's leading scorer her senior season with an average of 23.5 ppg, while leading the SEC in steals per game in her junior year.
White was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team in 2002 and was a First-Team All SEC selection three times.

A four-year letterwinner at the University of Alabama from 1989-1993, Franklin co-captained the Tide to a 23-7 record and second round appearance in the NCAA Tournament as a senior. She was named to the All-SEC Freshman Second Team in 1989 and garnered three All-SEC Academic Honor Roll nominations. Franklin led her team to 10 games of 100 or more points her senior season which still stands as the record at the Capstone.

During her stay in Tuscaloosa, Franklin was involved in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, appeared on the Dean's List on five occasions and was a nominee for the Paul "Bear" Bryant Scholar-Athlete Award.

Prior to arriving in Starkville, Franklin served as junior varsity softball coach and an assistant for the varsity softball and basketball teams at Tuscaloosa Academy.

A native of Smyrna, Ga., Franklin attended Campbell High School, where she was a two-time Cobb County Player of the Year. She still ranks as the top scorer and rebounder in Campbell history.

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Heather Mesalam enters her second season as Director of Basketball Operations for the Crimson Tide. In this position, she is responsible for handling the day-to-day operations of the program, coordinating team travel, serving as camp director, preparing workout and gym schedules, team ticket requests and serving as the liaison between academics, equipment and compliance.

Prior to joining the women's basketball program, Mesalam was a four-year manager for the Crimson Tide men's basketball team where she was head manager for the last two years. In addition, Mesalam was the first female manager on the men's team at the Capstone and first student-appointed head manager. Her main duties as a manager included supervising the other five student managers, handling practice logistics and assisting with drills, supervising and monitoring on and off-season workouts, taking care of player guest tickets, equipment, statistics and charting of substitutions at both home and away games, acting as an office administrative assistant and coordinating and planning team functions.

From 2005-2008, Mesalam was camp coordinator of the Bama Hoops Basketball Camp where she managed logistics for nearly all camp functions, organized fundamental skills stations and coordinated the program for the camp. She also served as committee leader for the Shoot for Life campaign in Tuscaloosa, a fundraiser assisting the need of those that are under-insured and fighting cancer. Here, Mesalam was responsible for writing and presenting corporate sponsor proposals, planning and executing the marketing campaign, event and sponsorships, and coordinating celebrity guest appearances and venue selection.

During the summer of 2005, Mesalam interned at Real Life Marketing in Indianapolis, where she assisted in event planning and independent consulting for a variety of businesses and individuals.

Mesalam, a native of Indianapolis, graduated Magna Cum Laude from Alabama in May of 2008 with a Bachelor of Science in commerce and business administration. In her final year, she was honored with the Rising Star Marketing Senior Award and was named to Who's Who of Executive and Professional Women in August of 2008.

She is currently pursuing a master's degree in sports management.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE

2004-05

Keisha McClinic enters her first season as Director of Player Development for the Crimson Tide after having spent the previous two seasons as graduate assistant.

McClinic's duties at Alabama include organizing and implementing the program's community outreach program and directing the Tide's Kid's Club.

A 2005 graduate from Middle Tennessee State University with a degree in recreational therapy, McClinic had worked in the private sector for 18 months prior to arriving in Tuscaloosa. While employed at Personal Enrichment through Mental Health Services in Tampa, McClinic supervised psychiatric programs for children and adolescents during her tenure.

She served as an assistant at MTSU during the 2004-05 season, helping the team to a 24-9 record that included a regular season and conference championship and an NCAA Tournament berth. She was responsible for the team's film exchange during that season and assisted with the Blue Raiders' summer camps.

As a senior in 2004, McClinic helped MTSU upset No. 12 North Carolina in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. She earned Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Week honors once that year while setting the school's single-season mark in steals with 112.

A team captain, McClinic earned MTSU's Defensive Player of the Year award as a senior. In her junior campaign, she finished the year ranked fourth in the nation with a 3.5 steal-per-game average. McClinic ended her career having played the most games (120) in school history and was ranked second in Blue Raider history in steals (246).

While at MTSU, McClinic was extremely active on campus and in the community. She worked with the Special Olympics and served an internship with an organization devoted to assisting patients with spinal cord injuries. She also coordinated Middle Tennessee's Basketball Camp for Adolescents and was an active member of the Student Athletic Advisory Committee.

A National Honor Society member, McClinic graduated from Eagles Landing High School in Stockbridge, Ga.

After spending one season as the director of basketball operations at the University of Albany, Taylor Allen returns to her alma mater where she enters her first season as graduate assistant. She will be responsible for Alabama's film exchange, game editing, and practice taping.

While with the Great Danes, Allen experienced similar film duties in addition to an administrative role and coordinating travel and purchasing equipment.

As an undergraduate student, Allen was the head women's basketball manager at the Capstone for three years. In that role, she supervised and trained other managers, generated yearly mail-outs to recruits and managed the team's travel and video equipment needs. Allen continued working in the women's basketball office and served as an assistant camp director over the summer. In addition, she practiced regularly with the team and saw action in two games as a senior.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Allen earned a bachelor's degree in marketing with a minor in computer science from the University of Alabama in 2008. She is currently pursuing a master's degree in sport management.

Michelle Diltz is in her fifth year with the Crimson Tide where she works primarily with women's basketball, softball and women's golf. In addition, she assists with football and both men's and women's track and field. Since her arrival on campus, Diltz's squads have enjoyed much success and continued improvement each season. In 2008, softball earned a No. 4 national ranking and trip to the Women's College World Series and women's golf competed for the national championship where the Tide finished No. 12 in the nation. Last season, softball repeated with another trip to Omaha, and golf advanced to its fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff, Diltz spent two years at Texas A&M University where she earned a master's degree in Sports Physiology. While at A&M she worked as a graduate intern in strength and conditioning assisting with softball, volleyball and archery. Diltz spent her undergraduate days at Texas Women's University. In 2002, she graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Exercise Physiology and minor in Nutrition. She was a four-year letter winner on the softball team where she served as team captain for the 2000-2002 seasons. Diltz was also heavily involved off the field where she was Kinesiology Club President from 2000-2002 and Student Athlete Advisory Committee President from 2001-2002. In 2002, she was presented with the TWU Redbud Campus Leader Award. Following graduation Diltz stayed close to the softball team serving as the volunteer strength and conditioning coach for one season.

In addition to collegiate strength and conditioning, Diltz also had a brief stint as a personal trainer from 2002-2003. She is certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association as both a Strength and Conditioning Specialists and Personal Trainer. In addition, Diltz is a certified member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

Diltz, who was formerly Michelle Martin, is married to BJ Diltz. The couple welcomed their first child, Brady Nikol, on Aug. 6, 2009.

Since 2006, Jeremy Dobbs has been the athletic trainer for Alabama women's basketball where his responsibilities include injury evaluation, daily treatments, rehabilitation, utilization and referral to team physicians and coverage of practices and games. In addition to women's basketball, Dobbs is the oversight staff athletic trainer for swimming and diving. He also serves as a clinical instructor to athletic training students in the Athletic Training Education Program at Alabama.

Dobbs has spent nearly all of his professional and educational years at Alabama and Alabama at Birmingham. Prior to his current position with the Crimson Tide, Dobbs spent four years with UAB Sports Medicine. His duties included daily clinical operations, ordering x-rays, drawing up injections, casting and splinting patients and casting and fitting for custom or off-the-shelf braces. In this position, Dobbs also provided medical coverage for area high school athletic events.

In 1999 Dobbs began his first tenure with Alabama where he served as a Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer working primarily with men's track and field and cross country. He also assisted with football, gymnastics, soccer, basketball and tennis. Day-to-day responsibilities for Dobbs were similar to those he performs now with the women's basketball team. He served as the Medical Coordinator for the 2000 Southeastern Conference Cross Country Championship meet and the Region IX Cross Country meet that same year. Dobbs graduated with a Master of Arts from the Capstone in Health Studies with an emphasis in Sports Medicine Health Care in 2001.

Dobbs' earned his Bachelor of Science in Health Promotion from UAB in 1999. Following completion of his master's degree, Dobbs attended the Temple University School of Podiatry completing a clinical application in Pedorthics in 2002. This helped Dobbs to start Alabama Pedorthic Design where he still works as part owner and Pedorthist. As a Pedorthist, Dobbs evaluates, analyzes gaits, molds and fabricates custom foot orthotics and educates patients on proper footwear.

Dobbs holds several certifications including the American Board of Certified Pedorthics, National Athletic Trainer's Board, American Heart Association CPR & AED and Alabama Athletic Trainer licensure. He is also a member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association, Southeastern Athletic Trainer's Association and Alabama Athletic Trainer's Association.

Dobbs is married to the former Michelle Darnell, and the couple has two children: Hunter and Kelsey.

Jason Johns assumed the role of Academic Advisor for the women's basketball team last season. He previously spent three years in Student Services for the College of Human Environmental Sciences at Alabama.

In his position with the College of Human Environmental Sciences, Johns managed work study students, advised students in the program and assisted with scheduling. Johns earned his undergraduate and master's degrees in Human Environmental Sciences during this time with his Bachelor of Science coming in 2006 and Master of Science in 2008.

Prior to his initial tenure with the University, Johns spent 19 years in sales and management. From 1999-2004, he served as store manager for Kenneth Cole Productions in Dallas, Texas where responsibilities included maintaining proper inventory levels, developing incentive plans to motivate commissioned employees and planning invitation-only marketing events to enhance sales. Before Kenneth Cole, Johns spent one year at Gap Inc. as an assistant store manager. Previous to moving to Texas, Johns served as area sales manager for Saks Inc., DBA Parisian in Tuscaloosa from 1993-1998. Here, Johns managed a staff of up to 10, produced $1 million in sales revenue and worked closely with buyers to respond to customer needs.

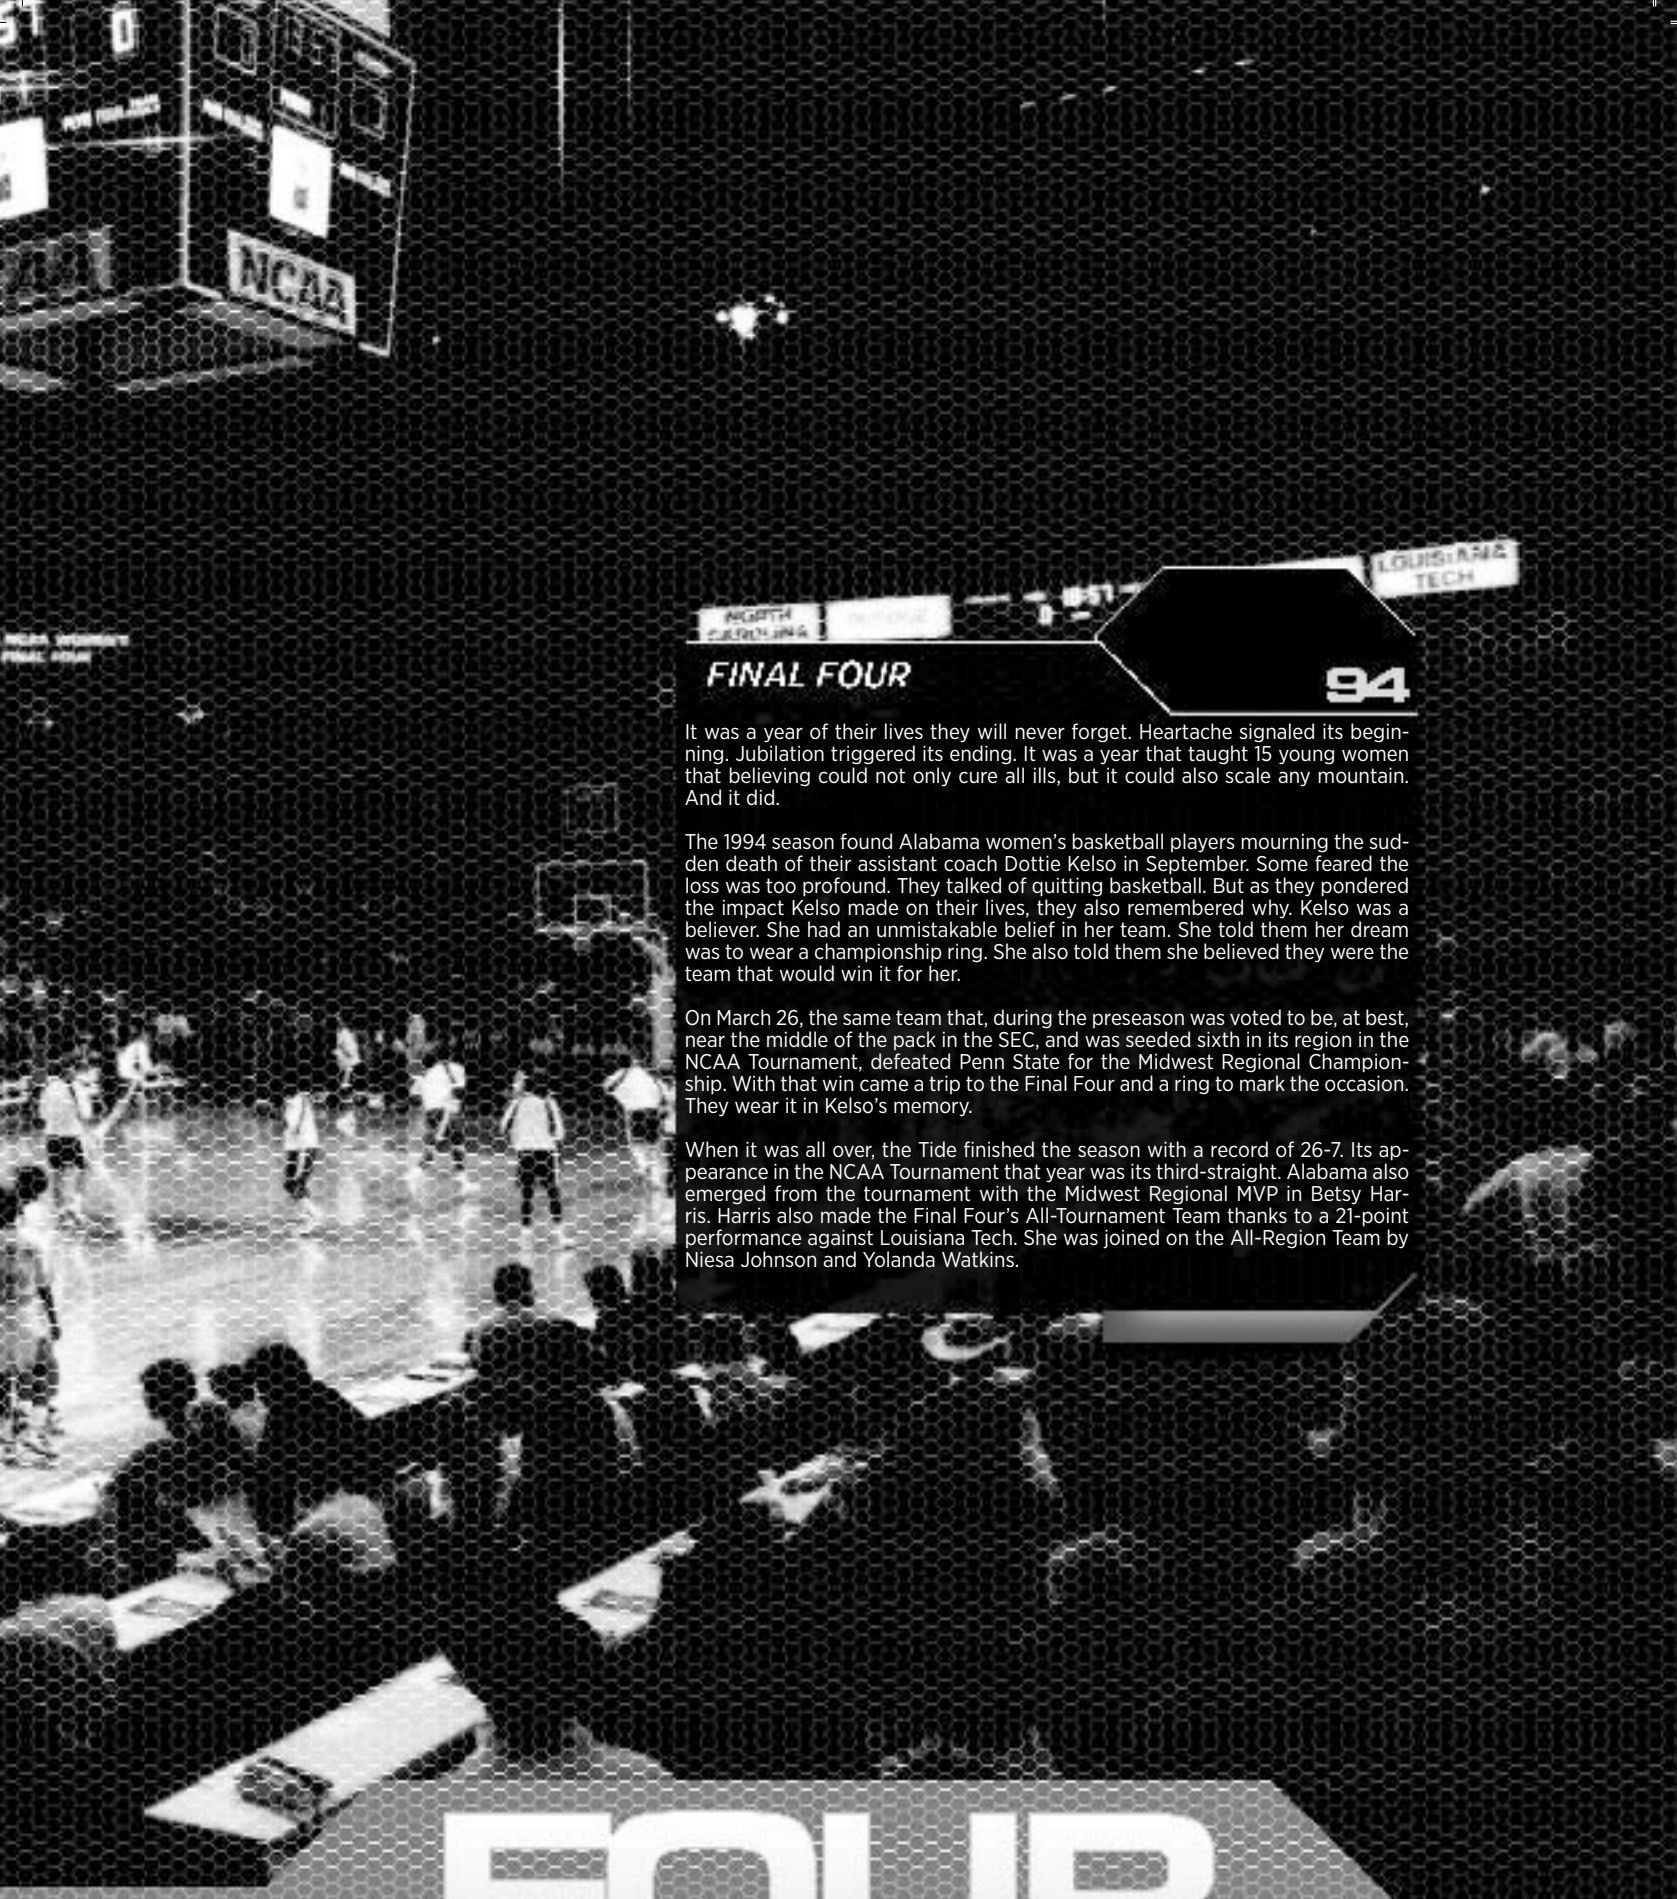
FINAL



FINAL FOUR 94

It was a year of their lives they will never forget. Heartache signaled its beginning. Jubilation triggered its ending. It was a year that taught 15 young women that believing could not only cure all ills, but it could also scale any mountain. And it did.

The 1994 season found Alabama women's basketball players mourning the sudden death of their assistant coach Dottie Kelso in September. Some feared the loss was too profound. They talked of quitting basketball. But as they pondered the impact Kelso made on their lives, they also remembered why. Kelso was a believer. She had an unmistakable belief in her team. She told them her dream was to wear a championship ring. She also told them she believed they were the team that would win it for her.

On March 26, the same team that, during the preseason was voted to be, at best, near the middle of the pack in the SEC, and was seeded sixth in its region in the NCAA Tournament, defeated Penn State for the Midwest Regional Championship. With that win came a trip to the Final Four and a ring to mark the occasion. They wear it in Kelso's memory.

When it was all over, the Tide finished the season with a record of 26-7. Its appearance in the NCAA Tournament that year was its third-straight. Alabama also emerged from the tournament with the Midwest Regional MVP in Betsy Harris. Harris also made the Final Four's All-Tournament Team thanks to a 21-point performance against Louisiana Tech. She was joined on the All-Region Team by Niesa Johnson and Yolanda Watkins.

4 OT'S VERSUS DUKE

It was a game that nobody who witnessed would ever forget. If the term had been in the American lexicon on March 18, 1995 the NCAA Tournament East Regional game between Alabama and Duke would most certainly have been one of the most memorable "Instant Classics" in history.

When the dust settled in Coleman Coliseum after a four-overtime thriller that saw the Crimson Tide advance over the scrappy Blue Devils 121-120, one thing was certain: women's college basketball had never been more exciting.
The contest was what postseason basketball is all about. Two teams at the top of their game, executing their respective offenses to perfection while playing gritty defense on the other end of the floor.

Each team also had its share of heroic individual performances. For the Tide, the all-time great center Yolanda Watkins score 38 points, while All-American Niesa Johnson registered a triple-double with 28 points, 14 assists and 12 rebounds. She also played a mind-boggling 28 minutes and 29 seconds with four fouls. But for all the gaudy offensive numbers being thrown about the Coliseum floor that night, it was a defensive stop with 19 seconds remaining in regulation that might have saved the day for Alabama. With Duke leading 81-78, and in possession of the ball, the Tide's Marlene Stevenson stepped in front of a driving Kira Orr and drew a charge, taking away an Orr basket and giving the Tide one last shot.

Johnson responded nailing perhaps the most important shot of her career on the ensuing possession. She drained a 23-footer with just 1.6 seconds on the clock to force the first overtime. Her supply of heroics hadn't run out just then as she sank two free throws in the first overtime to tie the score and connected on a jumper with 49 seconds to go in the third overtime that eventually forced the deciding frame.

Johnson gave her team a four-point lead with two key shots from the charity stripe with eight seconds left to play. Those free throws came in handy after the Blue Devils' Alison Day hit her third trey of the game to pull Duke within one point with 10 seconds remaining. Alabama, however, was able to run the clock out sealing the win for the Tide. And even though the clock finally hit zeroes for the last time, the memories of that special night lingered on for all involved. For the 20 exhausted players and their coaches, it was 60 minutes of the most intense, pressure-packed, exciting basketball.

4 OT's

SHONDRA JOHNSON

RECORD: 20-7

NCAA SECOND ROUND

Dominique Canty, the most prolific scorer in school history, carried the Tide to its eighth straight NCAA Tournament appearance and its eighth 20-win season in 1998-99. Canty, who finished her career as the leading scorer in program history, poured in 19.7 points per game, one of only two Tide players to score in double figures for the season.

Her heroics helped carry the Tide to a great start, as Alabama jumped out of the gates winning seven straight. League play was a bit more difficult, as the team faced seven ranked opponents in the SEC en route to a 7-7 finish.

Alabama won six of its last seven heading into the postseason, with its only loss coming to No. 2 Tennessee in the SEC Tournament. The Tide beat Grambling State, 80-68, to open the NCAA Tournament and moved on to face North Carolina in the second round. The Tar Heels were too much and sent the Tide home with a 70-56 defeat on North Carolina's home floor.

DOMINIQUE CANTY

RECORD: 24-10

NCAA SWEET 16

Despite losing Yolanda Watkins and Shalonda Enis to graduation, Rick Moody had Dominique Canty, a scoring machine, back for the 1997-98 campaign with hopes of making another postseason run.

In the regular season, the Tide had to fight hard to earn its 22 wins. Alabama played in three overtime games, losing all of them, to enter the SEC season with four losses. The team learned its lessons, and got hot during the conference season, ripping off a four-game win streak in January and a six-game stretch in February to earn a 10-4 mark in the SEC, tying the school record for most league wins set by the 1996-97 Tide team.

Alabama earned wins over five ranked teams, including one over Auburn and two over highly-rated Florida. The Tide forced 607 turnovers, an average of nearly 18 a game. The defensive effort helped make up for a slower scoring attack that saw the team average 76.4 points, slightly off the torrid pace set by some of Moody's earlier teams.

The Tide beat UNC-Greensboro handily in the first round and outlasted No. 25 UCLA in the second round, both in Tuscaloosa. Perennial rival Louisiana Tech once again dashed Alabama's hopes, however, as the fourth-ranked Lady Techsters beat the Tide, 71-57, in Lubbock, Texas, to end the season.

YOLANDO WATKINS

RECORD: 25-7

NCAA SWEET 16

With Shalonda Enis and Dominique Canty to lead the way, along with Yolanda Watkins, who rejoined the Tide after missing the 1995-96 season with a knee injury, the 1996-97 team was poised for another postseason run.

After losing two early games to Stanford and North Carolina State, teams the Tide had faced in the 1996 NCAA Tournament, Alabama ran off 14 straight, setting a school record for consecutive wins in a single season. The Tide went 8-5 against ranked teams during the season, beating No. 4 Georgia in late January.

Enis led the team in scoring, with 17 points per game, and on the boards, with an 8.9 rebound per game average. Canty scored 16.1 points per game, while gritty point guard Brittney Ezell dished 143 assists. The Tide beat St. Francis and St. Joseph's in rounds one and two before falling to No. 15 Notre Dame in the Sweet Sixteen.

BRITTNEY EZELL

RECORD: 24-8

NCAA SWEET 16

For the first time in awhile, expectations were low for the 1995-96 Alabama team. Three starters had graduated and Yolanda Watkins was out for the year after a season-ending knee injury. The only returner was Brittney Ezell, a sophomore, leading critics to pick the Tide eighth in the SEC in the preseason. The unknowns in the Tide lineup, however, turned out to be gems.

Shalonda Enis and Dominique Canty burst on to the SEC scene to lead the Tide to a third place finish in the league and an SEC Championship game appearance against Tennessee. Enis' offensive heroics were nothing short of amazing. She averaged 23.9 points and 9.5 rebounds per game, more than filling the shoes of Watkins. Canty, who would go on to become the school's all-time leading scorer, earned SEC Tournament MVP honors despite having played on the losing team, an indication of things to come for the freshman from Chicago.

Behind Canty, who scored 31 points, the Tide blew past Appalachian State, 95-66 and beat North Carolina State by 20 to set up a matchup with Stanford in the Regionals. The Cardinal was too much, unfortunately, and sent Alabama home with a two-point loss in Seattle. The 1995-96 team set a school record at the time by facing 13 ranked teams, winning six, including a sweep of in-state rival Auburn.

PAM DUNCAN

RECORD: 22-9

NCAA SWEET 16

The 1994-95 team faced the unenviable task of following up on the program's first Final Four appearance and all of the expectations that go along with those lofty standards. The Tide roster still had star power, with Niesa Johnson and Yolanda Watkins returning, but new players would have to step up for Rick Moody and his team.

Alabama got off to the right start, opening with nine-straight wins, including victories over Arkansas and Notre Dame. The Tide went 8-5 in the SEC to finish third, one place higher than the 1993-94 Final Four team had finished the previous year. Alabama went in to the NCAA Tournament red-hot, having been winners of five of its last six, with the only loss coming to No. 2 Tennessee in the SEC Tournament.

Duke was the opponent in the NCAA Second round game on March 18, 1995, in Coleman Coliseum on a night that will never be forgotten. The teams finished regulation tied at 81 apiece and went on for three more overtime frames before Alabama finally pulled away in overtime number four, 121-120. The game set several NCAA Tournament records that still stand, including most points and most periods. Alabama's run ended five days later with a loss to UConn, a team that went on to win the 1995 NCAA Tournament with an undefeated record behind Jen Rizzotti, Nykesha Sales and Rebecca Lobo.

NCAA FINAL FOUR

The Alabama roster was loaded again for head coach Rick Moody heading into the 1993-94 season, with superstars Niesa Johnson and Yolanda Watkins returning along with sharp-shooter Betsy Harris. The team was determined to make up for the gut-wrenching loss to North Carolina in the NCAA Tournament, and make up for it they did.

Despite the emotional loss with the sudden death of assistant Dottie Kelso prior to the season, Alabama jumped out of the gates, winning its first eight and 11 of its first 12. Alabama was 12-1 on its home floor and finished with a 7-4 mark in the SEC.

Oregon State was the first Alabama victim at home in the NCAA Tournament. Alabama went to No. 13 Iowa and beat the Hawkeyes by six in Iowa City to earn a trip to the Sweet Sixteen in Austin, Texas. Facing them was defending national champion Texas Tech, who was dispatched by a five-point margin to advance the Tide to the Elite Eight for the first time in school history. Two days later, Alabama overpowered No. 2 Penn State to earn a trip to the Final Four in Richmond, Va.

Alabama squared off with Louisiana Tech in the national semifinal, a team the Tide had beaten by 22 in December. The Lady Techsters were too much, though, handing Alabama a three-point loss to end the historic season.

NCAA SECOND ROUND

Hopes were high for the 1992-93 team that returned superstar Niesa Johnson and several other key players off of the 1991-92 NCAA Tournament team. Unfortunately, the season did not begin as well as had been hoped.

The Tide stumbled to a 3-3 start while facing a brutal schedule that included four of eight games against NCAA Tournament teams from the previous year. The turning point came in January, though, when the Tide put together a five-game win streak that included the program's first ever in Baton Rouge over LSU.

Johnson proved her 1991-92 season was no fluke, as she led the SEC in assists and steals while scoring 16.1 points. Highly touted freshman Yolanda Watkins made an auspicious debut, averaging 14.6 points and a team-high 8.6 rebounds per game.

Head coach Rick Moody's offense was as explosive as ever, as his team led the nation in three-pointers made per game (7.6) and finished second in the NCAA in scoring, averaging 86.7 points per outing. The Tide surpassed the century mark eight times, including a 122-point outburst against Oral Roberts, setting a single-game record that still stands.

Alabama beat Georgia Southern handily in the opening round, but fell in a heartbreaking overtime game, 74-73, to North Carolina.

NCAA SECOND ROUND

When Rick Moody took the reigns in Tuscaloosa prior to the 1989-90 season, he brought a high-flying offensive attack and an attacking full-court style of play that forced opponents to play all 94 feet of the floor. No team epitomized that style of play like the 1991-92 team, the first of Moody's eight NCAA Tournament squads during his tenure with the Tide.

Led by superstars Linda Burgess and Niesa Johnson, who would later become Alabama's first All-American first-team honoree, the 1991-92 squad scorched the nets throughout the year. The team averaged 87.9 points per game, a single-season record that still stands. The Tide scored 100 points a record 10 times, including a 105-point effort in a victory over Georgia. Alabama went 10-1 at home and 10-4 on the road during the regular season to finish third in the SEC.

Burgess averaged 20.3 points per game, while Johnson poured in 16.3 per outing. The duo also led the Tide on the boards, with Burgess averaging 8.2 rebounds per game and Johnson tallying 7.1. Johnson earned National Freshman of the Year accolades and Burgess earned All-SEC and honorable mention All-American honors.

The Tide ran past Tennessee Tech in the first NCAA Tournament game at home in school history, but didn't have enough to outscore Western Kentucky, who went on to earn runner-up honors after losing to Stanford in the 1992 NCAA Championship game.

RECORD: 18-10

NCAA SECOND ROUND

Despite 20 wins in 1985-86 and 19 over the 1986-87 campaign, the Crimson Tide found themselves on the outside looking in when the NCAA Tournament field was announced. However, after a 17-10 regular season under third-year head coach Lois Myers, Alabama found itself among the 40-team bracket for the second time in school history in 1987-88.

The team earned the bid on the strength of two wins over ranked teams, including an upset of No. 10 Mississippi, Alabama's first victory over the Rebels in nearly four years. The Tide finished just 5-4 in the SEC, but the league was loaded and included four teams, Tennessee, Georgia, Auburn and Mississippi, that spent time in the nation's top 10.

Myers directed a balanced offensive attack in 1987-88, with four players averaging in double figures in scoring and no individual who scored more than 14.5 points per game. In the first year of the three-point line in intercollegiate basketball, sharp-shooting guards Tracey Rutledge and Shelly Pyles led the way. Laura Heard led the team on the boards, while Laura Vaughn averaged 13 points and 6.1 rebounds on the year.

Unfortunately the postseason bid was short-lived, as the Tide bowed out to South Carolina in Columbia, 77-63, to end the season.

NCAA SECOND ROUND

Heading into the 1983-84 campaign, the Crimson Tide was looking for its breakthrough season. The program, officially recognized for the first time for the 1974-75 season, had seen its share of success. Twenty-win years in 1977-78 and 1980-81 were already in the books, but the Tide was looking for its first NCAA Tournament bid under third-year head coach Ken Weeks.

The 1983-84 squad delivered on that wish, racking up 23 wins, including victories over six ranked teams during the regular season. Alabama opened up 10-1 to begin the year and won 15 of its first 17 before a four-game slide in mid-January. The Tide finished strong, though, winning eight of the final 11, including an upset over No. 10 Tennessee in the SEC Tournament. Alabama won its first-ever NCAA Tournament game, on the road against Central Michigan, before losing the rematch with the Lady Vols in Knoxville on March 23 to end the historic season.

Cassandra Crumpton, who became the school's first All-American in 1982-83, was the team leader, averaging 17.4 points per game. Carol Smith, one of the best post players in school history, averaged 16.2 points and 7.3 rebounds per game, while forward Justina Smith scored 12.2 points per outing. The team was an efficient offensive unit that converted 47.8 percent of its field goal attempts, the third best percentage for any team in Alabama history.

WNIT QUARTERFINALS

In the Tide's most recent post-season appearance, head coach Rick Moody led his team to a post-season tournament for the 11th consecutive year. It was Alabama's fourth WNIT appearance in school history and the third in as many seasons.

Moody's team won three straight to open the season and went on another six-game win streak in December prior to SEC play, which opened at Kentucky. A brutal stretch came in January, when Alabama went up against four-straight ranked opponents in the league, including No. 7 Vanderbilt and second-ranked Tennessee in consecutive outings.

The Tide did get a win over a ranked opponent later in the year, handing No. 25 Mississippi State a loss in Tuscaloosa on Feb. 7. Alabama finished with a 7-7 record in the league but had to face 24th-rated Georgia in the SEC Tournament and lost to the Bulldogs by four.

In the WNIT, Alabama beat Missouri in the opening round in Columbia and dominated Eastern Kentucky, 99-77, in the second round. Michigan State was too much for the Tide, though, in the quarterfinals and ended the season with a 79-61 loss in East Lansing.

Senior Shondra Johnson capped her career by leading the team in scoring and fellow senior LaNisha Cartwell led the team on the boards for the second straight year. The 2001-02 unit led the SEC in three-point shooting percentage, knocking down 40.1 percent as a team.

WNIT SECOND ROUND

The Crimson Tide roster was full of talent, including All-American Shondra Johnson and fellow 1,000-point scorers LaNisha Cartwell and Monique Bivins, but much of it was young for the 2000-01 squad. Alabama jumped out of the gates, winning its first nine before the streak was ended by Oklahoma State in the Bahamas.

Alabama won two regular-season tournament titles, including the UIC Thanksgiving Tournament in Chicago and the St. Peter's Holiday Classic in New Jersey.

But the league was tough again and the young Tide team faced eight ranked opoponents, including top-ranked Tennessee and No. 4 Georgia. Alabama pulled upsets over No. 25 Auburn and No. 21 Mississippi State, but ended the season with a 5-9 mark in the conference.

The Tide beat Auburn in the first round of the SEC Tournament but fell to No. 1 Tennessee, setting up the WNIT bid. Alabama beat Memphis at home but lost to an inspired UAB team in the second round in Birmingham.

Johnson recovered from her shoulder injury in the previous season and earned the second of three consecutive second team All-SEC honors while scoring 13.4 points per game. Cartwell averaged a career-high 6.1 rebounds per game and Bivins showed some flashes of her future abilities and scored 6.1 points per outing.

WNIT FIRST ROUND

Alabama returned just two starters from the 1998-99 team that advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and had to replace All-American Dominique Canty while facing seven ranked teams throughout the year.

The result was the Tide missing out on an NCAA bid for the first time since the 1990-91 season and snapping an eight-year NCAA Tournament streak that included the 1993-94 Final Four team.

Despite a 10-2 start, Alabama struggled in the SEC, going 5-9 and earning an eighth-place finish, its lowest since that 1990-91 season. Sophomore Shondra Johnson became the team's go-to player, leading the team in scoring with a 12.7 points per game average. Teammate Taquilla Allen chipped in with 12.5 per game and Joni Crenshaw led the Tide on the boards, collecting 5.6 per game.

Kentucky ended the Tide's SEC Tournament in the first round, handing Alabama a 67-63 defeat in Chattanooga. The Tide returned to that city just two weeks later to face the Lady Mocs on March 16, where the home team eked out a two-point victory.

It was Alabama's first appearance in the WNIT since the early days of the program in 1977.

NWIT QUALIFIERS

Records are scanty from the early days of Crimson Tide women's basketball, but the 1976-77 team set precedent by becoming the first Alabama unit to advance to post-season play.

The Tide was under .500 for the season under head coach Stephanie Schleuder, but advanced to the WNIT in the post-season to face four teams in Amarillo, Texas.

Not surprisingly, they are the only team in program history to play in the post-season despite holding a losing record.

Alabama lost all four games after facing Valdosta State, Wayland Baptist, Belmont and Indiana State. Powerhouse Delta State had ended the Tide's tournament run in the old AAIAW Tournament with a convincing 81-47 defeat in Cleveland, Miss.

Doris Roy led the team in scoring, averaging 14.0 points per game. Mary Hudgins edged out her teammate SandraMurray in the rebounding category, beating her by a mere decimal point. Hudgins averaged 8.22 boards per game while Murray was right on her heels with an 8.21 average.

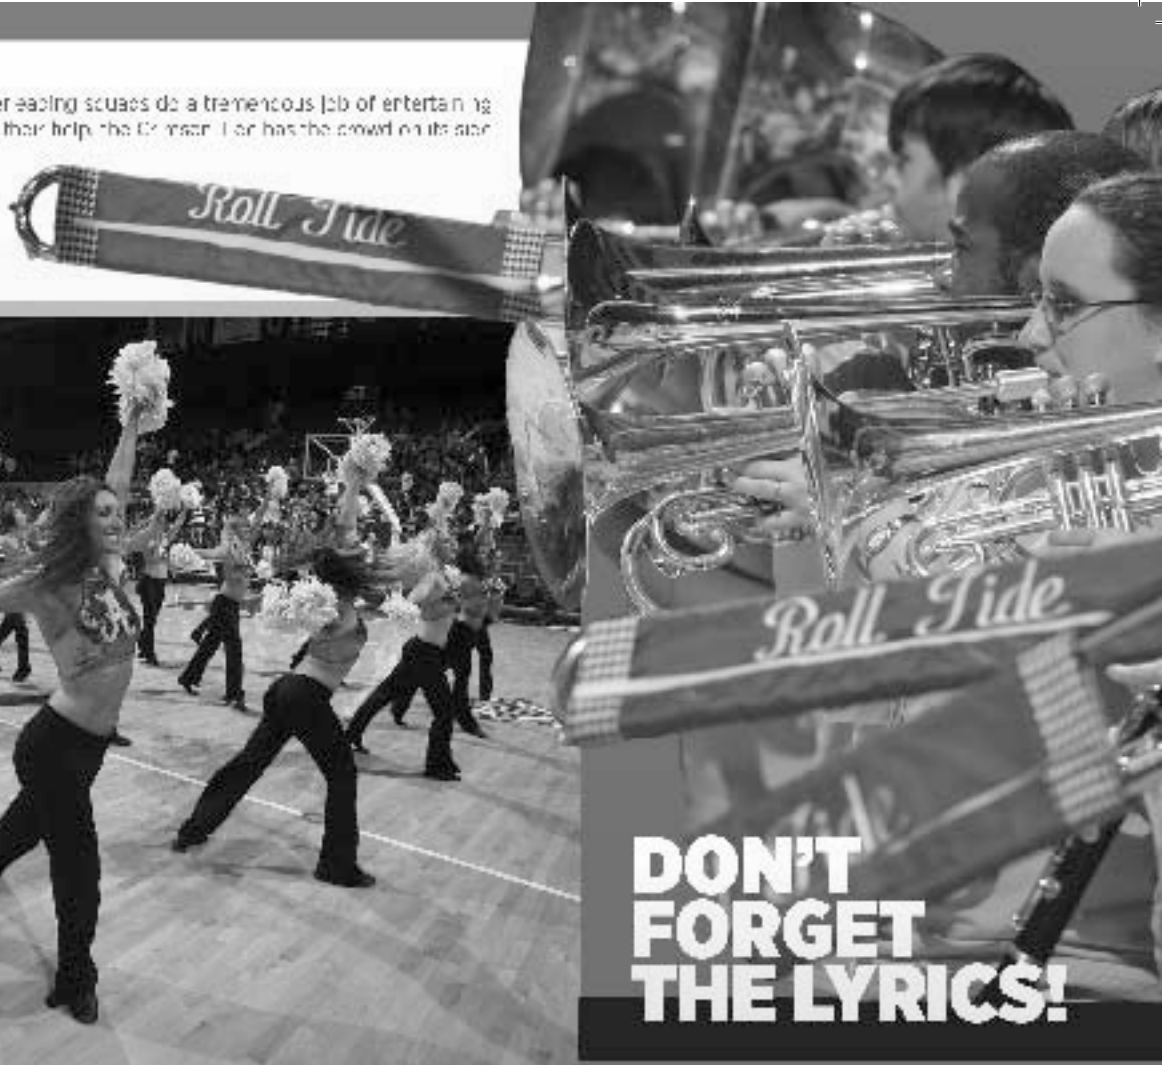
MILLION DOLLAR BAND

The University of Alabama "Million Dollar Band" is an exciting part of Crimson Tide spirit and tradition. Comprised of more than 330 students with various majors and interests, the band is the largest single organization on campus. For basketball games, a small version of the complete band is on hand at all times to help entertain during breaks in play and provide an even better home-court advantage.

Sports Illustrated magazine has listed the "Million Dollar Band" as one of the top three college bands in the nation.

The Crimson Cabaret and Alabama Cheerleading squads do a tremendous job of entertaining the crowds throughout the season. With their help, the Crimson Tide has the crowd on its side every night it steps on the floor.



DON'T FORGET THE LYRICS!

(Alabama Fight Song)

Yea, Alabama! Drown 'em Tide!
Every 'Bama man's behind you,
Hit your stride.
Go teach the Bulldogs to behave,
Send the Yellow Jackets
to a watery grave.
And if a man starts to weaken,
That's a shame!
For Bama's pluck and grit have
Writ her name in Crimson flame.
Fight on, fight on, fight on men!
Remember the Rose Bowl,
we'll win then.
So roll on to victory,
Hit your stride,
You're Dixie's football pride,
Crimson Tide, Roll Tide, Roll Tide!!

"Big Al" is one of the most recognized mascots in the country. His antics during the game make him a crowd favorite.

(Victory Song)

Hey, (team name)
Hey, (team name)
Hey, (team name)

We just beat the hell out of you!
RAMMER JAMMER

THE LEAGUE

With eight national championships, 10 runner-up finishes, a nation-leading 34 Final Four appearances and 95 first-team All-America honors, the SEC stands firmly as the nation's premier intercollegiate women's basketball conference.

LOOK AT THE NUMBERS

Overall, SEC squads have (No) 34 of the 72 Final Four berths, including (no) Final Four teams in 1988 (Auburn, Tennessee), 1989 (Auburn, Tennessee), 1997 (Georgia, Tennessee), 1998 (Georgia, Tennessee), 1999 (Alabama, Tennessee), 2004 (LSU, Tennessee), 2005 (LSU, Tennessee), 2007 (LSU, Tennessee) and 2008 (LSU, Tennessee).

THANKS FOR THE INVITE

The SEC was the first league to earn two bids, right, once it moved to the NCAA tournament, doing so in 1984 and 2002.

CONTRIBUTIONS BY ALL

All 12 current members of the SEC have appeared in the NCAA tournament.

FINAL FOUR SUCCESS

SEC teams have combined for appearances in 26 of 28 NCAA championships, an accomplishment unmatched by any other league.

REACHING THE PINNACLE

SEC teams have made 19 appearances in a national NCAA Championship game, winning eight NCAA Championships (Tennessee: 1987, 1989, 1991, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2007 and 2008).

NOW THAT IS A NUMBER

Since the 1990 season, the SEC has compiled a 777-297 (.723) record against other conferences. The league has recorded 1,004 wins during eight seasons and has never recorded a non-conference winning percentage below .723.

THE SEC IN THE WNBA

The Southwestern Conference has more players on the 2009 opening day WNBA rosters than any other league. A total 44 former SEC alumnae suit up in the WNBA in 2009.

THE POLLS

Since the SEC began its women's basketball in 1982, it has finished only three times in the top four overall in each of the final polls (the USA Today/ESPN and Associated Press).

ALL-AMERICA HONORS

The SEC has had 26 student-athletes earn multiple First-Team All-America selection. These 26 have been named a total of 63 times since the 1982-83 season (first year of SEC women's hoops).

LEAGUE SIGNS NEW TELEVISION PACKAGE

The Southeastern Conference has signed a 15-year deal with ESPN reportedly worth more than $2 billion to televise sporting events, including women's basketball.

The agreement is the longest ESPN has ever signed and matches the length of the powerhouse league's deal with CBS earlier in August.

"This agreement makes the SEC the most widely distributed conference in the country," said SEC Commissioner Mike Slive.

"The bottom line here is that fans will have more access to games and better distribution than they ever have in the past," Slive added.

"We're thrilled with the historic nature of this deal," ESPN executive vice president John Skipper said, adding that college sports have been "part of our DNA" for nearly 30 years. "It's not hard to figure why we'd want to be involved with it, given the quality of SEC sports, for 15 more years."

• ESPN and ESPN2: SEC teams will make a minimum of 16 appearances (min. of 4 conference games) on ESPN or ESPN2 and one of the networks will also televise the conference tournament championship game.

• ESPNU: The network will also feature a minimum of 16 appearances (min. of 4 conference games) by SEC teams, in addition to the women's conference tournament semifinals.

• ESPN Regional Television (known as the SEC Network): ERT will syndicate a game-of-the-week during the regular season.

• FS South will air a minimum of 16 games. CSS will air a minimum of 16 games.

• Tournament: First/Second rounds will be on FS South or CSS (decision has not been made yet); Semifinals will be on ESPNU; Championship on ESPN or ESPN2.

KNOW THE RULES

Some FAQ when dealing with Student-Athletes

WHO IS A REPRESENTATIVE OF ALABAMA INTERESTS?

Someone who:

- Has ever made any use of financial or material resources to the athletics department, or specifically used programs or to athletics booster organization including purchasing donor seating, to athletics events (e.g. tickets to football or other events)
- Has or has been a member of any organization or agency promoting University of Alabama athletics (i.e., Rec Explorer Club, Guard Stumpers, etc.),
- Has ever helped to arrange or has provided employment for an enrolled student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or their parents or relatives,
- Has ever assisted in any manner in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes,
- Has ever provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families or to a prospective student-athlete or their families
- Has otherwise animated the University's athletics program in any manner.

WHAT ABOUT RECRUITING?

As a representative of Alabama's athletics' interests, you may not:

- Contact a prospective student-athlete (or a member of his/her family) in an effort to evaluate a prospect
- Visit the prospect's institution to pick up, film or transport an athlete or the prospect's academic eligibility or athletic ability
- Contact a prospective student-athlete's parents or legal guardians or relatives at the University of Alabama campus
- Contact a prospect by telephone or by letter
- Make social arrangements for entertainment for recruiting purposes
- Provide national cell phones or services for a prospect

WHO IS A PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE?

NCAA rules stipulate that a prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth (9th) grade, regardless of his/her athletics ability.

A prospective student-athlete is a student-athlete who has signed a National Letter of Intent for a full-time offer of financial aid to attend The University of Alabama and has enrolled for the first day of classes for a regular term (Fall

WHAT ABOUT STUDENT-ATHLETE APPEARANCES & PROMOTIONS?

Student-athletes are prohibited from being involved in any advertisement, recommendation or promotion of sales or use of any commercial product or service of any kind. All public, educational and community appearances and activities including student-athlete appearances must be approved by the athletics department. All student-athlete appearances or speaking events are coordinated through Bama's Life Skills Office. For information, please call (205) 348-5678.

WHAT ABOUT STUDENT-ATHLETE EMPLOYMENT?

Student-athletes receiving athletics grants-in-aid will be eligible for employment during the regular academic year. Student-athletes will continue to be eligible for employment during the University's official vacation periods (i.e., Christmas, Spring Break) and during the summer. Very detailed rules regarding which student-athletes may be employed, when and how much money they can earn must be followed. In addition, the Compliance Office must keep written records verifying all student-athlete employment. If you have an interest in hiring a student-athlete, you must first contact the University's Compliance Office prior to employing the student-athlete. Failure to contact the Compliance Office prior to employing a student-athlete could jeopardize the student-athlete's eligibility to participate in intercollegiate athletics at Alabama and could result in an NCAA violation for the student-athlete's school.

WHAT ARE THE RULES GOVERNING GAMBLING?

A student-athlete, coach and/or employee of The University of Alabama may not provide information to individuals involved in any type of organized gambling concerning sporting events. In addition, student-athletes, coaches and employees of The University of Alabama may not solicit or accept any wager on any intercollegiate or professional athletics contest.

WHAT ARE EXTRA BENEFITS?

NCAA legislation explicitly prohibits University supporters from providing "extra benefits" to student-athletes. An extra benefit is any special arrangement to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. In general, you may not provide anything or make special arrangements for student-athletes or prospective student-athletes that are not available to the general student population.

- providing cash or loans in any amount, or signing or co-signing for a loan
- a guarantee of bond
- the use of an automobile
- gifts of any kind, including birthday cards, flowers and holiday gifts
- gift of clothing or equipment
- providing loans to relatives or friends
- any tangible items, including merchandise
- free or reduced-cost services, rentals or purchases of any type
- free or reduced-cost housing
- gift of cash or like items
- providing special discounts for goods and services (e.g., car repairs, legal services, haircuts, etc.)
- purchasing complimentary admissions from a student-athlete
- providing an honorarium to a student-athlete for a speaking engagement
